Our high school years - for each one of us these past years hold special memories which we will never forget. These memories may include our special friendships, major social events we attended, or our times we shared together, both in and out of school.

During our years here at Comp most of us have had a teacher who has greatly affected our lives. This teacher may have given us new insights of the world around us, shared with us thoughts and beliefs, helping us to learn more about ourselves and each other, or was just there to listen when we needed someone to talk to.

One teacher in particular has opened our eyes to the culture of the people around us. She is a dedicated teacher who brings life and excitement into her classroom. Through her eyes we have travelled to such foreign countries as Spain, Mexico, and Argentina.

Not only is she a dedicated teacher during school hours, but she can also be found chaperoning dances or cheering on our athletic teams throughout the year.

One thing is certain, this teacher sincerely cares about her students.

With this in mind, Memini 1988 is proudly dedicated to Mrs. Judith Czelusniak for all her support and encouragement throughout the past four tears.

TAKE A LOOK AT US

Four years ago we came to Comp not knowing who we were, where we fit in, or what was expected from us. But did we learn quickly!

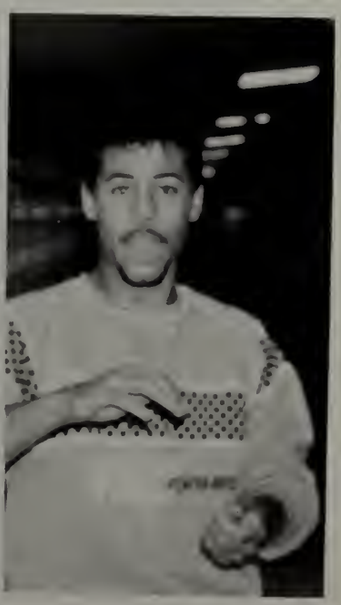

Our time here has given us a chance to learn more about ourselves and each other. We developed friendships with hopes of sharing each others good times as well as bad times. We have learned from our mistakes, making us better people because of them. We have grown from being shy and unsure of ourselves, to being confident, knowing that we were here for a purpose and that we will be able to do whatever we choose to do in the future.

Comp has given us the opportunity to explore new horizons. Through our studies we were introduced to ideas and concepts beyond our wildest dreams. With this knowledge in hand we can leave Comp knowing that we are prepared to handle any challenge that is placed before us.

But first let us go back now, and take a closer look at how it was- in the beginning.

TAKE A LOOK AT OUR PEOPLE!

Who make our school

the best it can be!

LOOKING AT . . .

1984-1985

Freshman year, at times it seems like so long ago, at other times it seems like only yesterday. We can all remember the excitement of freshman year. We had finally made it to high school -but what then? The first few days were confusing. We asked questions such as "Where is the fifth floor?" and "Can you really buy an elevator key?" Soon we found our place to fit in and freshman year truly began.

The Homecoming game our freshman year made history. After eleven years of being defeated by Chicopee High the Colts were finally victorious- and brought the sword home to where it belonged.

We were the last class to join the Modern Foreign Language Club.

Outside of school many events took place which made freshman year memorable. Ronald Reagan defeated Walter Mondale in the 1984 Presidential campaign, making him President for a second term.

The 1984 summer Olympics held in California allowed the world to see what the United States was made of-people who worked hard to be the best they could be. No one would soon forget the smile on Mary Lou Retton's face as she won her gold medal after a perfect vault; or the look of pain and disappointment on Mary Decker's face after tripping over Zola Budd during the 3,000 meter race.

We were saddened to learn of the death of Soviet leader Yuri Andropov, as well as the deaths of Marvin Gaye, Count Basie, and Baby Fae.

Although far away, the sufferings of the people of Ethiopia and of Bhopal after the Union Carbide gas leak were felt by many of us here at Comp.

Samantha Smith's letter to Yuri Andropov gave the world hope that the future generations might be able to reduce the threat of nuclear war.

Michael Jackson and his Thriller tour set fashion trends around the country. Sequined gloves and red leather could be seen here at Comp.

And now, a look at our Sophomore year.

1985-1986

Sophomore year was the year to unite as a class. We elected our class officers who would work together to make our time here at Comp the most enjoyable ever. We held our first major fundraiser, the M&M candy drive, to earn money for our Senior dues. But more importantly, Sophomore year was the year to purchase our class rings. Our class rings allowed everyone to see that we were no longer Freshmen; we were a class which proved itself strong in spirit and determination.

Our teams proved to be very powerful our Sophomore year. Not only did our football team defeat Chicopee High, but they also made it to the Super Bowl. The hockey team became the Berry division and Western Mass. champs. Both the boy's and girl's basketball teams won Western Mass. and the boys made it to the state semi-finals.

Outside of Comp many important events took place in and around our country. Many events of 1985 and 1986 were saddening and discouraging. On January 28, 1986, the space shuttle Challenger exploded after 73 seconds of flight, resulting in the deaths of the seven crew members aboard. This was the worst disaster NASA had experienced since it began. During the year many planes were highjacked causing tensions to flare between the United States and terrorist countries. Africans, still under apartheid rule, suffered greatly by having restrictions placed on their lives. In Russia, the nuclear power station, Chernobyl, exploded causing many deaths and exposing those people still in the area to high levels of radiation.

On the brighter side, President Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev met at the first U.S.-Soviet summit in six years, opening up the pathway of communication between the two countries. New York City, along with the rest of the world, celebrated the 100th birthday of the Statue of Liberty in a week long tribute to "the Lady", which ended in a magnificent fireworks display. Singer Bob Geldof, along with some of the most noted singers of our times, performed the Live Aid concerts to aid Africa's famine victims.

Unity, the word that best described our Sophomore year- at Comp and throughout the world.

And now, let's take a look at our Junior year.

1986-1987

Our Junior year- the last step before we became Seniors. Junior year was our year for planning. It was a time to start thinking about the future- taking PSAT's and SAT's, attending college fairs, choosing college majors, and searching for the "right" college or job.

Many activities during our Junior year took place. This was the last year for a spaghetti supper to be held after our Homecoming game. Homecoming weekend, due to Hurricane Gloria, was altered slightly, but all ended on a happy note with our third consecutive victory over Chicopee High. Our Junior class held its annual Magazine Drive which ended successfully for all who participated. Our class also began a new tradition, a candy cane sale, for the holiday season which gave us an extra chance to raise money for Senior dues.

In addition to our busy lives inside of school the events of the world were constantly changing around us. At home, Springfield celebrated its 350th birthday with yearlong festivities.

The New York Mets won the World Series after defeating the Red Sox in the seventh game. After losing the America's Cup to Australia in 1983, Dennis Conner, skipper of Stars-&Stripes brought the Cup back to the United States. Clint Eastwood became mayor of Carmel, California, in a widely televised campaign. Disney World celebrated its 15th birthday while Top Gun rocketed to the top of the movie charts.

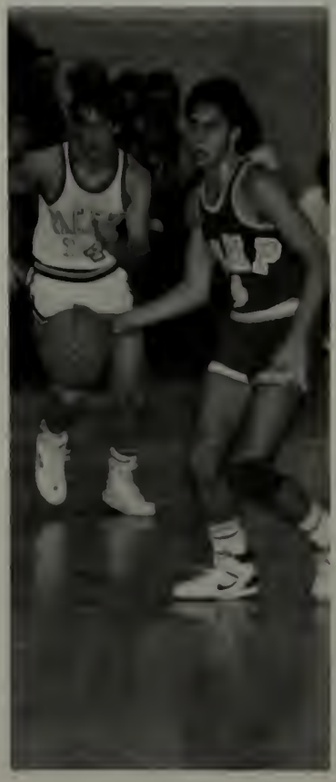

On a less cheerful note, the dealings of the Iran-Contra scandal were becoming known to the public raising questions about the Reagan administration. The battle in the Persian Gulf escalated causing tensions to rise on both sides.

But now, the year we had waited so long for - our Senior year!

LOOKING AT . . .

SENIOR YEAR

1987-1988

Our Senior year, probably the year most of us will never forget- what a year it was! We enjoyed our new status, but we enjoyed our new title even more - SENIORS!

As Seniors we had a year of hard work ahead of us. We had to apply to colleges or make plans for the future, as well as keep up with our school work.

Many new and exciting events took place during our Senior year. For the fourth year in a row our football team defeated Chicopee, thus retaining the sword. After years of waiting the auditorium seats were replaced, easing the minds of those students who were concerned about the safety of their clothes. Plans for the Senior Prom were well under way and running smoothly. The Art/Literary Magazine was published for its second year by Mr. Midura.

Outside of school many events should be remembered. The Constitution of the United States celebrated its 200th birthday with speeches and parades throughout the country. The Armand Hammer Art Collection came to Holyoke where it was displayed for approximately six weeks. Snow White celebrated her 50th anniversary and the movie was re-released by Disney.

The question of how to deal with the Aids epidemic caused much controversy as television, radio, newspapers, and magazines launched a campaign educating the public as much as possible as to the effects of this deadly disease.

The Senate hearings on the confirmation of Robert Bork and the public's opposition to his nomination were major events covered by the media. Also, Jim and Tammy Bakker of the PTL were under constant scrutiny for their misuse of monetary contributions.

Senior year, where high school ended and the future began. No matter what path we choose to follow, we can always look back on our memories of Senior year and remember the good times that we had shared together.

As a class we definitely proved ourselves to be academically, athletically, and socially inclined. Now you can see why - WE'VE GOT THE CLASS!

CLASS ADVISORS

For the past three years, the Class of '88 has been watched over by two dedicated individuals. Mr. Pinciak and Mr. Le Beau realized the responsibility they would be taking when they accepted the positions of class advisors. They've done a great job and the Class of '88 thanks them for everything they have done for us. Both Mr. Pinciak and Mr. LeBeau feel that the class behaved extremely well although it was unfortunate that the entire class did not have the enthusiasm of the forty or so students who really got involved. Goals are a major thing when you are talking about a graduating class. Did we met our goals? Absolutely! The Class of '88 is one of the best ever to step into the ranks of alumni.

Lynn- I'd like to thank the Class of '88 for all their understanding and support. I feel our class was great over all. There was always a lot of cooperation when we had important issues facing us. Mr. Pinciak and Mr. Le Beau have really been great, we could not have done it without them. They helped us to understand ourselves as well as others. I got a lot of experience out of being a class officer. The past four years have been the best here at Comp. I am really going to miss the excitement and fun of being class president. I wish the best of luck to everyone in their future plans.

Tess - I feel that the Class of '88 is one of the best to graduate from Comp. I think the class had a lot of school spirit and enthusiasm. Our class was involved even way back when we were itty, bitty, little freshmen. Our advisors, Mr. Pinciak and Mr. Le Beau, cared a lot about us and we ought to be thankful for being so lucky to have had them. I wish everyone the best of luck and hope to see everyone at our five year reunion!

Tracie- The involvement of students has really increased over the years. We have become a close class with a lot of good things going for us. Because the other officers and I got along with the class advisors so well we were able to get a great deal of work accomplished. They were always there for you when you needed them, they let you make your own decisions. It was a lot of work; I do not think people realize how much time goes into being an officer. I really did enjoy being an officer and I am glad that I did it.

Ann- We had an awesome 4 years together here at Comp. I really feel fortunate to have been an class officer. The experience I received is really going to help me face the real world. I am glad we had such wonderful advisors as Mr. Pinciak and Mr. Le Beau. As I look back now I realized whenever they disagreed with us on an issue, it was for our own good. We were really lucky to have two such great guys. I think we reached all our goals as a class and I hope everyone reached their individual goals as well. It is now time to face college or the work world, I hope everyone is prepared, I know I am!

Attentive class - Kim Roy, Paul Romanovicz, Melissa Niemiec

We've got the class
yes we do we even have escapees from the zoo!
(John Llodra and Craig Authier)

We've got the class
these 2 pals
real good buddies and really sweet gals. (Tess Galindo and Peggy Fleury)

We've got the class
A Spider Man?
Wouldn't want to put my fate in his hands. (Jeff Lawson)

We've got the class
a working bunch
we love to visit them during lunch.

We've got the class
no need to debate
the third floor is a great place to find a date.

We've got the class
the chemistry crew wouldn't you like to see what they can do!

Please not while I'm trying to read - Mike Kindness

"How's this for a million dollar smile?" - Paul Romanovicz

"It's for me - really!" - Kerry Rousseau

A little quick homework before homeroom - Tom Bouchard

"Don't bug me - it's Monday morning" - Chris Tucker

"What does this word mean?" - Laurie Lefebvre, Fay Boissonneault

"Do you want my picture?" - Sue Rokosz

We will always deeply treasure our fond memories of our high school days, but we can never return - only progress.

JUNIORS

Chris Desmarais, Rachel Sterner, Kelly McConell, Alan Sawa

Class Officers

The class officers for the class of 1989 are Alan Sawa-President, Christopher Desmarais-Vice President, Kelly McConell-Secretary, and Rachel Sterner-Treasurer. These four students have devoted many hours of their spare time-and class time-towards making the class of 1989 a success. The officers' main goals are organizing fund-raisers and the activities that benefit from them. The Junior dance, the cheese sale, and the record-breaking magazine sale (profits in excess of $17,000.00!!!), were well organized and promise a pleasing Senior year for all the Juniors. Alan Sawa stated that the class as a whole -not just the officers- made the magnitude of success as great as it was. The greatest event that the officers organized was the Junior Prom. Held at the Holiday Inn, the prom will not be forgotten by any Junior who attended it. Besides being the social event of the year, the prom was a once in a lifetime event.

The officers agree that our class is very school-spirited and enthusiastic. We are looking towards our Senior year-our final year of high school! If things go as well then as they have this past year our Senior class will definitely be the best ever!

The Advisors

We've mentioned our officers and our class but there are two very special people who make it all come together: our two class advisors, Mr. Cutter and Mrs. Leonard. Together these two people have dedicated a large amount of time and effort to our class. We are happy to have two people as dedicated to our class as are our two advisors. We would like to thank you-Mr. Cutter and Mrs. Leonard- for your thoughtful support of our class.

Mr. Cutter, Mrs. Leonard

Yeah we know. It was planned. (Art Jackson, Dave Girourd, Chris Labonte, Nicole Gonneville)

Wouldn't you like to know what's in my locker? (Greg Toegel)

You guessed it. Let's go Colts! (Angela Nichols, Rob Rodell)

What was your name again? (Chris Desmarais, Ron Jendrysik)

Please, just tell me why! (Stephanie Duprey)

We really are studying-REALLY!! (Jerry Paquette, Darren Massey)

My alternative to lunch. (Aaron Wheeler)

Aaa-chew!! (Alan Sawa)

Pretty cheery for a Monday, huh? (Chad Nentwig)

THE gang (Eric Guy, Phil Franklin, Scott Raymond, Carlos Lopes, Jason Costello)

Soon to be kicked out for the year! (Kevin Klause, Scott Garvin)

We have nothing to hide. (David Hein, Reggie Williams)

I'd rather be somewhere else. (Jeff Labonte, Jennifer Landry)

The guy to beat (Phil Franklin)

Nobody touches this purse! (Gina Scanapieco)

Best friends (Kim Walker, Shawn Grant)

What can I say? They BOTH love me! (Tanya Morin, Kevin Benoit, Laurie Ritter)

The man who's got it all. (Ken Bergeron)

One big happy family. (Jennifer Steadward, Julie Merchant, Rob Rodell, Anna Prorok, Kelly McConnel, Greg Togell)

ond-James Bond and Klaus (Steve Hebert, Kevin Klaus)

I didn't do it!!! (Mark Obrycki)

Byrd goes for a field goal! (Carlos Lopes)

Look out Michael, this Jackson is the baddest! (Art Jackson)

What!? I always study! (Steve Lunardini)

A winning smile. (Craig Bruneault)

Brady bunch or the Adams family? (Phil Franklin, Glen Morin, Scott Garvin, Chris Desmarais, Amy LaBelle, Steve Hebert, Nicole Gonneville)

SOPHOMORES

The Advisors

Behind the Sophomore class are two very dedicated teachers, Mrs. Fennessey and Mrs. Ferraro. They have both already given many hours of their spare time to the class. Because of the outcome of the M&M sale, Mrs. Ferraro and Mrs. Fennessey feel that their class is well motivated and capable of raising enough funds for a spectacular senior year.

The Sophomore class would like to thank their advisors for their time and effort and are looking forward to working with them towards a successful Junior year.

Tiffany Bergeron, Aimee Giguere, Betsy Lenart, Lisa Peets

Mrs. Fennessey, Mrs. Ferraro

Class Officers

The Sophomores, the class of 1990, are in the early but crucial stages of their class's development. At the end of Freshman year four officers were elected to lead the class in the right direction towards Senior year. Luckily, the class elected four very eager and spirited classmates to hold the available offices. The officers are Lisa Peets-President, Betsy Lenart-Vice-President, Aimee Giguere-Secretary, and Tiffany Bergeron-Treasurer. The officers' first organized a successful Sophomore dance. Next, they led the class's M&M sale. In coordination with the class advisors, the sale of M&M's turned out to be quite a success. This fund-raiser was the first major step for the class of 1990 towards a great Senior year. The four helped make the ring sale another terrific accomplishment. The greatest thing that happened to the Sophomore class, as happens to all Sophomore classes, was the ring sale. To the students the rings signify one's individuality and at the same time a true unity and pride in his school. The Sophomores have a bright future ahead of them and a great class to work with. Together the officers, the advisors, and the class as a whole, will make the Seniors of 1990 great. GOOD LUCK!!!

Yea, but you should see the kid we beat up. (Robert Sachen, Kieran Gallagher)

What's my combination? (Justin Simonich)

I'm feeling left out. (Alicia Labonte, Skye Reed)

Stop following me! (Sonya Banville)

A "Motley" Crew (Shawn McLean, Jeff Lariviere)

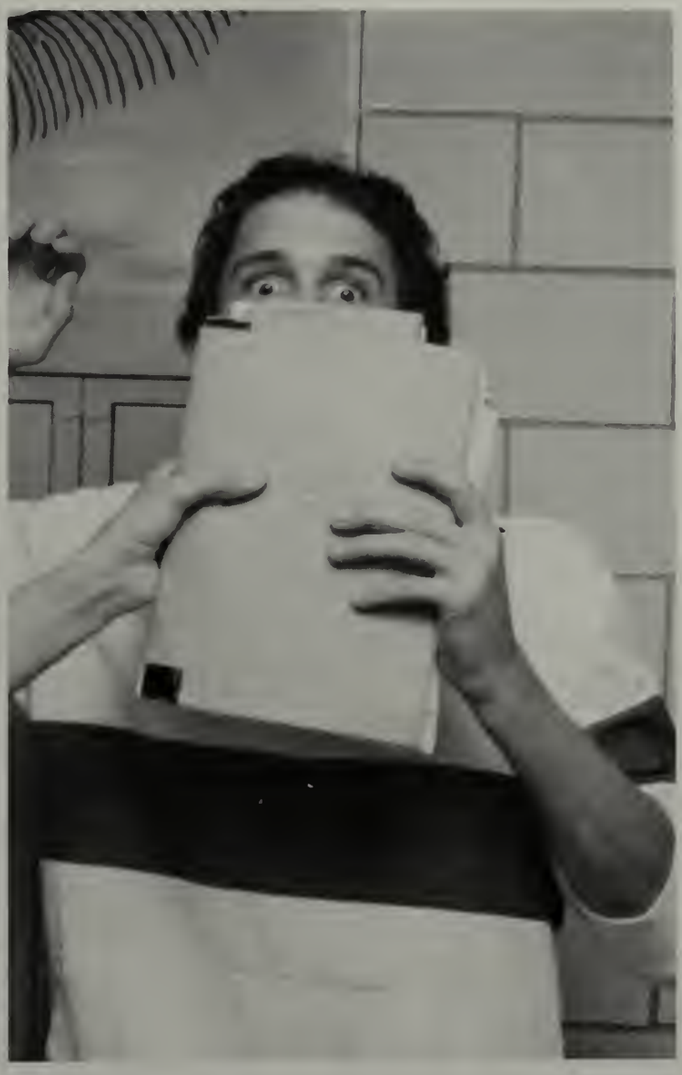

Don't worry Jackie, I'll protect you!!! (Steve Giroux, Jackie Bail)

You're kidding us, right? (Jennifer Hartmann, Lisa Brogel, Christine Cabasal)

Only twenty more minutes. (Jeffery Godere)

Ahhh!-I'm allergic to pictures!! (Collin Provost)

What are you up to, Shannon? (Shannon Holt)

THIS is impossible! (Matt Tillotson)

Brushing up on the latest gossip. (Lisa Peets, Tracy Manseau)

I hate Monday mornings!! (Melissa Veins)

How do I get out of this? (Heather Tuska)

Did I see a flash? (Melanie Borowiec)

Just one of my several lockers. (Samantha Wilson)

Everybody smile! (April Didierjean, Melissa Rock, Karen Paquette, Sonia Banville, Alaina Rivest, Laurel Erickson)

Hi Mom! (Bob Warshol)

This BETTER go in the yearbook (Aimee Giguere)

My homework? Well- (Shelley Plaz, Trista Kasperowski)

We're here bright and early every morning. (Steve Symington, Glen Carmedie)

FRESHMEN

Is this for the yearbook? (Kerry Sutherland, Kenya Overton)

Wouldn't you like to know!? (Sherry Potvin, Michelle Poulin)

The ultimate frosh. (Larry Beaulieu)

A teacher's favorite class. (Becky Funk)

Only 184 days to go! (Renee Robinson, Kathy Malone, Christine Skiba)

The vicious Frosh gang (Paul Roy, John Dezalia, Tom Cairns, Dave Carlos, Tim Camerlin)

Which locker is mine? (Tanya Pimpare)

When I bite in to a York Peppermint Patty (Christine Skiba)

No publicity please! (John Tolpa)

Just hangin' around. (Adam Wheeler, Craig Grant)

Fridays rule! (Don Bernier)

I want MY picture taken!!! (Jeff Allaire, Dave Carlos)

Not my fault folks. (Tom Blanchard)

"sigh" High school (Aimee Wood)

It's ten of two!!! (Sol LaRange)

We have no time for this nonsense! (Scott Lussier, Steven Luci)

I've had enough!!! (Donia Ferruolo)

Elevator? Out of order? But I just bought a pass!!! (Scott Bellerose, Sal Viladu)

What a rough day (Robert Carroll)

This stuff is so hard!!! (Eric Brice)

An enthusiastic crowd (Allison Authier, Debbie Hazard, Jennifer Dean, Kristen Arsenault, Jamie Dudek)

Time for our break! (Scott St. Onge, Ray Steadward, Michael Tsandilas)

Skipping's fun!!! (Troy Poirier)

Guy DiBiasio- Superintendent

Herbert Curry- Asst. Superintendent

I extend my very best wishes and congratulations to each member of the class of 1988 on the achievement of an important and significant goal — graduation from high school and receipt of a diploma. While the diploma you have been awarded signifies in our society that you have successfully completed a course of study, it also signifies that you are now prepared to meet the challenges of the future — and I am confident that the Chicopee schools have prepared you well for what lies ahead. You may seek employment, enter the military, continue your education or enter some form of public services.

Please bear in mind as you begin this new — and exciting — phase of your lives that the choices you now face are not what to this point in your lives have been the easy choices of a course or a curriculum or an extra curricular activity. The choices you will make from now on will directly affect virtually everything you do for the rest of your lives! Think about it! For this reason it is extremely important that now, more than ever before, your decisions are made with the rest of your life in mind. Clearly, you need to exercise the leadership, the courage and the moral stamina which are required to grasp every opportunity which is presented to you.

Whatever you choose, do so with wisdom, with a clear perspective of the future, an understanding of yourself and a sense of obligation to those who have placed their faith in you.

My very best wishes for continued success and happiness!

Guy DiBiasio — Superintendent

Carolyn Fitzgerald- Administrative Asst.

The Administration and Faculty commends each of you for achieving your established goal of completing your requirements for a high school diploma.

We, as Educators, presented opportunities rather than mere solutions. Opportunities to challenge your inquisitive minds; opportunities to expand your horizons; opportunities to exchange your ideas through openness of discussions to learn to appreciate new understandings.

As we shared our concerns together throughout your high school days, we must continue to look together toward the future where peace and fellowship may provide the people of all nations with a whole peace and not one of fear and strife.

The stability of our universe will be what your generation will contribute to the peaceful co-existence of all countries.

Continue the opportunity to use your minds to search for the enrichment and fulfillment of knowledge.

The Administrators and Faculty wish the members of the Class of 1988 the best in all of their future endeavors.

A person who speaks three languages is said to be trilingual, a person speaking two languages is bilingual and a person who speaks but one is called an American!

This is a sad but true commentary on the status of language learning in this country. At Chicopee Comprehensive, th language teachers are doing their utmost to downplay the popular idea that everyone should learn 'our' language. We are extremely proud of the 'class of 88' as seventy-four students successfully completed four years of language study, the highest number in over a decade. It is our hope that these students, as well as all other graduates, pursue their acquisition of language skills by enrolling in college level courses or by traveling abroad.

TAKE A LOOK AT OUR STUDENT LIFE!

After all the school work is done, there's still time left over -

for a little fun!

The object of this section is to take a look at what it was like to be a student at Comp during the 1987-1988 school year. We will be taking a look at the average week of a student, inside and out of school, to show that there was more to school than just academics.

In school there was a time to work, (Ted Klekotka) and

We met some of the best friends we'll ever have (Michelle Hartmann, Stacy Sittard)

a time to play. (Tommy Cairns, John Dezalia, Tim Camerlin) and we've learned more about ourselves and each other. (Alaina Rivest, Tom Martineau)

We're chillin' (Bob Liswell, Jeff Picard, Scott Garvin)

During our times here we were able to express our individuality through various activities. Even though we were all unique and special in our own ways, we proved we could work together to achieve success.

The good times outweighed the bad times, and provided us with enough good memories to last us a lifetime. I hope this section brings back the memories of those good times.

Does this look familiar?

It wasn't always this bad (Kim Rov)

We were made aware of the effects of drinking and driving.

Do You

getting up early enough to catch your bus?

working in the office every morning? (Rachel Sterner, Al Sawa) sitting in homeroom trying to get that homework done that's due first period. (Joe Nawaracj) putting on makeup during classes because you couldn't get up in the morning? (Jodie Mazurowski)

Mr. Kuzdzal saying, "We shall now pass to period number one!" (Chris Houde)

Remember . . .

studying in the halls before that dreaded test? (Ron Syriac)

first period

what the class looked like when you had a sub? (Dan Hamel)

all those unfair calls in gym? (Craig Authier)

the wide variety of people you met at Comp!!! (Ann Richards)

all those notes you had to take? (Kara Seiffert)

The day goes on with some seniors at lunch.

Buying "lunch" at DECA.

All those people selling things outside the cafeteria. (Lisa Turgeon, Dan Nawracaj)

Finally lunch!!!

Getting some "air" on the platform (Trisha Mattson)

Veggin' at lunch (Jennifer Bernier)

Hangin' out between classes (Cindy Cutter, Martin Laliberte, Bob Liswell

Rushing to get back to class after lunch

Finishing that last bite! (Dee Bettgenhauser, Jim Piantoni)

Doing homework at lunch (Amy Llodra, Tricia Fredette, Carol Goyette, Marylou Soucia)

Going to your locker before every class

Losing it by 5th period (Kelly McConnell, Cindy Berry)

That was a great shot - wasn't it? (Craig Authier)

"Miss Cournoyer keep your eyes on your own paper!" (Patty Cournoyer)

Computers are soooo boring (Kevin Theroux)

I can't wait until 2:00! (Chris Tucker)

Good old gym class!

6th period - almost time to go home!

Do you like my locker? (Shelly Perreault)

Aren't they cute? (Cindy Jalbert, Scott Cousineau)

I can't take much more of this.

You have got to be kidding! (Shelly Tuska, Dyan Veins)

Please leave me along. (Chris Desmarais)

FADS, FASHIONS, MUSIC

With each new year comes new clothes styles, hair styles, and new looks that are considered stylish or "in".

Some of these new styles or fads that made their debut in the 1987-1988 school year are canvas Converse sneakers, (in every imaginable color), acid and stone washed jeans, denim skirts, and, of course, the crop top.

Here, Karen Sedlak displays one of the disadvantages of wearing stylish crop tops!

Tammy Bouchard and Shelly Tease show off their fashionable leather jackets and mini skirts.

This picture shows that everyone has their own unique style.

Here, Kevin Benoit seems to have it all together. With his high-to-top canvas CONVERSE sneakers, rolled-up pants, and "spiked" do.

AND MORE . . . .

LET'S TAKE

With A Lesson In Drunk Driving . . .

This assembly for juniors and seniors was compliments of the Red Cross, and taught us the effects of drinking and driving.

A BREAK ! ! !

From The Usual . . .

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT

This year at Comp, we were fortunate to have four exchange students from three different countries. They were Maria Robledo Cals, from Spain, Diego Lainz, also from Spain, Siv Bente Aarre, from Norway, and Nikkolaus Schleifenbaum, from Germany.

I think these students deserve special recognition, so I devoted the next two pages to them. It takes a lot of extra classes and much courage to be an exchange student.

I asked them to compare their countries to ours, pointing out the good points and the bad.

Let's take a look at what they had to say:

Hola! My name is Robledo and I'm an exchange student. I come from Spain, and I'm spending this year here to learn English and to know another culture and way of life.

There are a lot of differences between my country, Spain, and the U.S.A. For me the biggest difference is the language. It's difficult for me these first few months because I couldn't understand and speak English well and it seems like one is alone.

Another thing that amazes me is that all the young people like me work after school here, and I think that is good because the youths are beginning to live their own lives early. They don't have to depend of their parents until they finish their formal education.

Another big difference between Spain and this country is T.V. In Spain T.V. is really poor because there's only one station with two channels. When you want to watch T.V. you have no choice; if you like the program that is on, OK, but if you don't like it, you have to turn off the T.V. set. Here T.V. is much better. There are a lot of T.V. stations that are always in competition for the public. You can see at any time the latest new and quite recent movies. On the other hand, I think T.V. is a bad habit because people can waste their time watching T.V. instead of doing more profitable things.

The last important difference I find here is in the high schools. There's a continious evaluation of knowledge. I have to study a little bit every day, but I never have to take big tests because I take quizzes every few days. For this reason I can get good marks in all my subjects. In Spain the teachers don't check my homework every day, and they give me a test maybe once or twice a month with a lot of lessons covered. If you have good study habits, there's no problem; but many students leave their homework until the day before the exam, and they have to study a lot the night before. That's a pity.

I would like Spanish high schools to be the same as here because I think American high schools are really easy and NICE.

Robledo Cals

OUR FOREIGN FRIENDS

The main difference between my country and the United States is in the school system. In Spanish schools there are not any sports activities between schools; if you want to join a sports team, it has to be in a private club.

Also the amount of tests and homework given is less in Spanish schools; so instead of 5 little tests, you get one big one with no more than 10 questions, so the questions are larger and must be explained, never multiple choice.

The school day is about the same, but after 4 of 5 periods there are about 2 hours to go home and have lunch and then go back to class at 4 O'clock.

About the 3 main meals in Spain are: at about 8:30-9:00, breakfast. At 2:00 a big meal (lunch). At 9:30-10:00 at night (dinner). Sleeping hours 12:00-8:00.

Spanish people live in big cities and 90% of the population live in apartments. (houses with a least four stories)

In Spain there are not big cars, most of them are small. You are always looking for a place to park, and the smaller the car, the easier it is to find a place to park.

United States T.V. is much better than Spanish, in Spain the cable T.V. isn't cheap yet.

In conclusion, I like the United States, but I like my country too.

Dlainz

Here, Nikkolaus Schleifenbaum, our German exchange student shows his feelings about being in America.

Nikkolaus got to know many of the students here and was well liked by both students and faculty. Unfortunately, Nikkolaus only stayed a short time here with us. "Nick" as he was called lived with Connie and Gene Brassard while attending Comp.

Siv, from Norway compared the two countries a little differently.

In the United States, there are many T.V. channels, in Norway there is only one. Here you have cable T.V., in Norway we have only Sty or Supper channel.

You have here Malls in which you may shop, in Norway there are shops in the streets.

In Norway, you are assigned subjects in school, which you have to take. I like the way that you are able to choose the classes you want to take.

We, in Norway must be eighteen years old to get our driver's license, in America, you only have to be sixteen.

The way the people dress in America is very similar to the way we dress in Norway.

In America, there are different meals, but you eat them about the same time each day. We, in Norway, have an irregular meal schedule.

It is nice that in America you have sports in school. In Norway, if you want to play sports, you have to join a team outside of school

Here, you finish school at the age of eighteen. In Norway, we go to school until we are sixteen years old. After high school, most people here go to college or university. In Norway most people go to a gymnasium (school) then to a college or university.

Lastly, another difference between your country and mine is that you celebrate Christmas on the 25th of December, we have Christmas on the 24th of Norway.

Siv Bente Aarre

GOT ANYTHING ELSE TO SAY . . . ?

Did you ever stop to wonder what some of the unique names that you hear people being called really mean? Every day as you walk down the halls, you hear things like, "Hey, Boomer!" or "Yo Scoop-ah-!"but what do they mean, where do they come from? I asked a randomly selected group of Comp students to explain. I got some pretty interesting answers!

Dan Nawracaj got the nickname "Russian" because Coach Skypek couldn't pronounce his last name.

Craig Authier got the nickname "Matchsticks" from Abe Kubetin, because "I'm half the size of him" states Craig.

Tricia Fredette is called "Treesha" because she's tall like a tree.

Kim Roy is called "Scoop-ah" by some friends of hers from New York.

Terry Forrester is called "Onion Head" because the lines in his hair remind people of onion rings.

Bob LaRochelle is "Boris Becker" because he looks like him.

Phil Franklin is nicknamed "D.L." standing for Daddy Longlegs.

Maura Desormier is called "Mo-Mo" because she was too easily confused with Laura at cheerleading practice.

Reggie Williams is called "Smoke" because (he claims) when someone is guarding him on the field, all they see is smoke.

Aimee Dezalia is called "Miss America" because of her hair.

Got anything else you want to add? Here's what some Comp students wanted to say to sum it all up:
Reggie Williams- Time is money and money is time; but when you chance, just listen to, my rhyme. (whatever that means)
Glen Bogdanovich- Chach, you owe me a dollar.
Kim Desrochers- You only become what you make of yourself.
Maura Desormier- I wish the best of luck to all the seniors!!!
John Llodra- Not another football game on the sidelines!
Renee Champagne- I need a new car.
Bob LaRochelle- Dave you're an egghead.
James Moriarty- I would just like to say that I want to wish the whole senior class the best of luck after graduation and in the future.
Kim Roy- Punch it Nae! Here we come Memorial Drive.
Tess Galindo- Keep Smiling!!!
Kim Cairns- Time to make the donuts.
Tricia Fredette- You are only what you are when no one is looking.
Kathi Blood- The goose is loose on a horse with a fish.
Mike Pete- Excuse me, does everybody know where Stein lives?
and finally
Don Papuga- When it's finally said and done and we're out of here, I want the whole crew to know I'm gonna miss all of them!!!

What do you always say??

I asked some Comp students what their favorite sayings were. Here's what I got.
Damon Franklin-"Ya, ok!"
Stacy Sittard-"HI HONEY!!!"
Rich Kendra-"What's up kids?"
Cindy Cutter-"Chill out!"
Kelly Dolan-"Hi goober!"
Craig Authier-"She's sooooo nice!"
Dawn Didierjean-"I didn't hear you."
Tricia Fredette-"WAH WAH "
Kim Roy-"Oh my, wow! Holy hotness!"
Amy Llodra-"Dude!!!"
Jon Guiel-"Cut it out."
John Llodra-"ZZZZZZZzzzzzzz"
Jason Vrona-"eh! shut up Jeff."
Sean Brewer-"NERD!!!"
Aimee Dezalia-"Si es verdad!"
Sue Roy-"Don't even tell me!"

Looking back, I hope this section will remind you of all the good times that we had together this year at Comp, and I hope that every time you "take a look" at this book, those memories will be relived in your mind.

Business

The goal of the business department here at Comp is to prepare students for jobs in accounting, clerical work, word processing, filing, and shorthand. This course of study enables students to find well paying jobs right out of high school or to further their education at a two or four year college. Whatever their plans after high school may be one thing is certain, the business teachers at Comp have well prepared their students for the future.

TAKE A LOOK AT OUR ORGANIZATIONS!

Groups of people sharing the same interests - who could ask for anything better?

What's that on your shoe? (Lynn Hamelin, Mr. Pinciak, Stacy Sittard)

Colts Yeah!

Hup-two, three, four!

Sign Committee, 1987 Good Job!

And I would just like to say a few words (Mr. Kuzdal)

For most people, the Fall Sports Rally isn't anything new. But for some people it was - the freshmen. Every fall sport team gathered on the floor and the captains of each came out to wish the others well and to introduce their teammates. The fall sports rally is a time for the players to receive recognition for all their hard work, efforts, and for being the ones to represent our school.

Perfect Form

The Line-up

The Exchange Rally kicked off the beginning of the Homecoming weekend. Chicopee High football players and cheerleaders came over to wish us luck and to convince us that they were going to take home the sword, but everyone knew how wrong they were. The Comp cheerleaders then came out and did a dance staging a battle between Chicopee Comp and Chicopee High, foreshadowing what was to happen the next day.

The sword is ours! (Mr. Kuzdal)

Don't worry, this pin isn't that sharp. (Stacy Bellerose)

And furthermore (Dr. Skypeck)

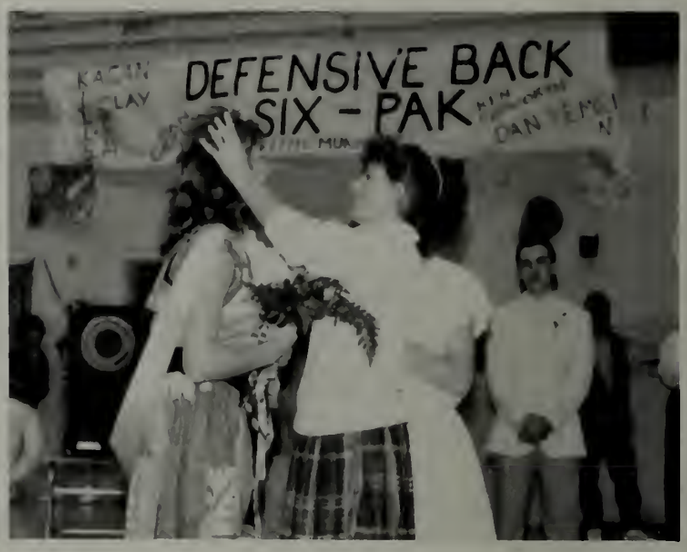

I hope I don't fall! (Kristen Stefanik, Michelle Pelland, Carrie Wellspeak)

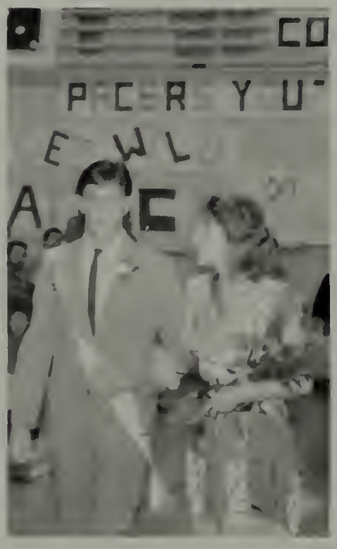

Dance with us We'll lead!

And I now crown you Homecoming King. (Steve Kijak, Stacy Sittard)

Here she is, Miss America (Wendy West, Stacy Sittard)

Did we really win? (Steve Kijak, Wendy West)

The king, queen, and court (Steve Kijak, Wendy West, Amy LaBelle, Eva Cox, Allison Authier)

Try to touch the net!

The annual Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the cheerleaders, was held on September 25, 1987. The night was filled with many interesting and exciting events. The juniors, once again, have managed to win the powderpuff cheerleading competition. Along with the cheerleading competition, the varsity cheerleaders performed a dance to "Tricky" and the J.V. cheerleaders did a short skit. But above all was the crowning of the homecoming queen and for the first time, the crowning of a king. The king and queen were Steve Kijak and Wendy West. Also, in the court were Amy LaBelle, Eva Cox, and Allison Authier.

Nice Legs, guys!!

Anywhere to graze around here?

What's wrong with this picture?

What do I do with it now? (Pat Clay)

Team Effort won this sword. (Dan Lemelin, Bob Liswell, Reggie Williams, Roy Dawson)

Gimme That!

Stop! You're ripping my shirt!

The sword remains at Comp! Through great efforts and hard-fought battles, the Colts have come through and defeated the Pacers, once again. There was no score until the third quarter when Roy Dawson broke through the Pacer line and scored a touchdown for the Colts. The game ended in a score of 7-0.

The devil made us do it.

Zippedee Do Dah, Zippedee Ay!

The light wasn't on in my closet this morning. (Ken Hamel)

The winning wheaties smile!

I've come to hijak this dance.

Watch where you're pointing that camera, sonny. (Tina Huber)

Don't you know that dolls come to life on Halloween?

Just one little tap right here

Oh no! I forgot the garlic!

Unga Bunga. (Bryan Giroux, Meg Goehring)

And the Lord said unto thee

Howdy, Partner! (Jeff Hooper)

Shift change on a Friday night.

This year's annual Halloween Dance, sponsored by the senior class, took place Friday, October 30 at the Comp gym. Costumes ranged from Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum to the Klu Klux Klan. Most students enjoyed themselves such as Don Papuga who said, "Wow - this is great!" and Al Clark stated simply, "Awesome!" However, some students weren't as thrilled about the whole freaky scene. Carol Goyette said, "I feel gay." Most of the students interviewed felt it was a night to remember.

Did anyone see my gloves? (Pat Clay)

Smile! You're on Candid Camera!

Who has the football, anyway?

Where can we get some?

On Sunday, November 22, 1987, the annual powderpuff football game between the senior and junior girls took place. The seniors, under the coaching of John Llodra, Pat Clay, Harley Kagan, Rich Kendra, and Dan Lemelin managed to overtake the juniors and won by a score of 35-0. Wendi West scored 3 touchdowns for the seniors, while Kim Roy and Laura Boudreau each scored one. Also, playing well for the seniors was Tracie Seymour, who the coaches felt helped the team to be victorious.

I'll run in for the pass.

We knew we could do it! (Tess Galindo, Mary Lou Soucia)

Look, Ma! No Hands! (Tracie Seymour)

So, what's 'Plan B'?

Quick! Somebody catch it!

We will win; you can count on that!

Time out! I dropped my contact lens.

The excitement of victory.

We're missing classes right now!

Everybody cut footloose!

When you're hot, you're hot!

Fastest sticks in the east.

A one a two a one, two, three, four!

The United States Army Band, the Brooklyn Queens Expressway, came to Comp and performed a concert for the students. This band, not only played some oldies from the sixties, but also current hits from the eighties. This band comes from the Brooklyn area and performs concerts all over the Northeast. Most of the students enjoyed the concert.

Let's jam!

Don't I look happy? (Rob Roedel)

A captivated audience

Just what do you think you're doing? (Mr. Moran)

Excuse me pardon me pardon me . . excuse me . . (Mr. Huettner, Mrs. Boratis, Mr. Vyce)

Aren't we photogenic?

On December 8, 1987, the induction ceremony for Pro Merito, Senior National Honor Society, and Junior National Honor Society was held. Students from the honor societies were given recognition for their academic achievement. Also recognized were teachers whom the students on the societies thought deserved something for everything they do in and out of the classroom. After the ceremony, there was a reception held in the library.

Let's Boogie!

What to choose, what to choose.

Next, just a short little speech. (Mr. Kuzdal)

What's that? I'm not quite sure.

Am I doing this right?

Now, whose is which? (Mrs. Leonard, Stacy Sittard, Sue Roy, Judy Griffin)

This is my beary good friend. (Tracie Loftus)

And then you put it in your ear like this.

The NCO Club was the site for this year's Student Council Christmas Party. The students and invited guests enjoyed a delicious meal of turkey or prime rib. After the dinner, there was a drawing where many prizes that were donated from area businesses were raffled off. They then proceeded to dance the rest of the night to the music of D.J. Steve Sinercha.

Comp's most talented air player. (Craig Dumas)

Can I join the conversation?

Just a quick game of poker hey, there's no cards. (Doug Cutter, John Chmura, Bob Warchol)

Dad your watch stopped. (Mr. Sittard, Stacy Sittard)

Picture perfect

Show your pearly whites! (Stephanie Duprey)

I'll try to stay away from the microphone. (Mr. Kuzdal)

Everyone! Quick! Look at Kyle! (Kyle Provost)

And then I said (Kevin Wenzel, Ron Dion)

Do you think this will come out? (Missy Niemic, Craig Bruneault)

Mine!! (Chrissy Stevens, Kevin Colberg)

I think the camera's pointing toward us. (Ron Dill, Beth Auger)

Cheese! (Ron Dion, Kerry Rousseau)

Ahhh! Just relaxing with some friends. (Brian Couture, Dan Nawracaj, Steve Whitlock)

Is this extreme talent or what? (Kyle Provost)

Our get-up-and-go got up and went. (Kristen Jasinski, Mike LeMay)

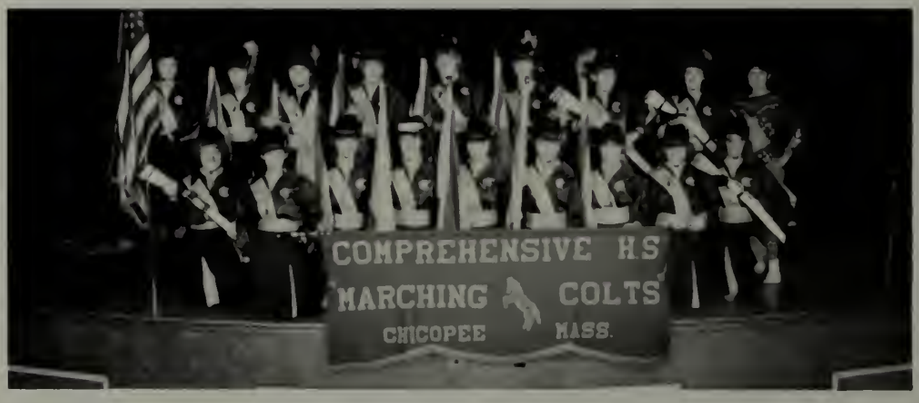

This year's annual Winter Cotillion, sponsored by the junior and senior classes, took place on Tuesday, December 29, 1987, at Storrowtown Carriage House in West Springfield. After the couples had their pictures taken by the Greniers, they sat down and enjoyed a delicious meal of boneless breast of chicken, scrod, or roast sirloin. Music for the night was provided by D.J. Steve Sinercha.

The Chemistry Team is made up of the students in the A.P. Chemistry class. Each year these students compete for a spot on the national team that goes to Europe and participates in the World Olympiad Test. After placing in the Western Mass competition, the students, then move on to the nationals. The winners of that move on and go to the Air Force Academy for two weeks for chemistry camp. Only four students are chosen.

The Math Team consists of six people and one alternate. Schools from neighboring areas come to each meet to compete. In the meet, the students work on 3 of the following subjects: Algebra 1 & 2, Geometry, Trig, Analyt, and Advanced Math. Only 3 people work on one subject for 10 minutes while the other three are in another room. Each subject has 3 problems. Then there is a switch and the other 3 people work on the next subject for 10 minutes and the meet continues in this manner. Points are awarded according to the difficulty of the problem.

The As Schools Match Wits Team is a group of students whom many of you may have seen on the television show "As Schools Match Wits", hosted by Phil Shepherdson. As a result of the three victories of last year's team, the current team is entering the playoffs this season. The team is made up of students who have knowledge of a range of subjects from sports to literature.

Although, many of you out there may not know that Comp has a debate team - it's true. The debate team has actually been in existence for 25 years. After 3 months of planning and preparation of cases and constructive speeches, writing counter-plans and memorizing quotes, the team is ready for its meets. The season for the debate team commences on January 13 and terminates on March 2nd. The season for the debate team ends with a banquet, which Comp will host this year, with 12 schools from Chicopee - Southwick in attendance. Mr. Jendrysik, the coach, felt that, "We have an inexperienced team, but all we can do is try our best."

The Journalism Club produces the Comp Chronicle. Club members will write stories, headlines, photo cutlines and design the pages of the newspaper. Members will be given the chance to use the Mac II Computer to design the newspaper, equipment the professional newspapers use to produce their paper. Also, members interested in photography are given the chance to learn how to use the darkroom for developing negatives and making black and white prints from these negatives, along with taking the photos, for the Chronicle.

With the help of a few parents and Mr. Kuzdal, the gymnastics club was formed in the last weeks of October. After only two weeks of preparation, the gymnasts entered a "practice meet" against Central High School. The team did extremely well and came out victorious. The meet had been an educational experience for those who had never been in a meet and a good time for those who had. There were many outstanding performances at this meet and the gymnasts did their best.

The Chess Team, headed by Mr. George Kennedy, was brought back into action last year. In the chess league, there are two divisions-Division A & B. The Comp Chessmen are in Division A, which means they play on Thursdays. The Chess Team competes against neighboring schools and at the end of the season, both divisions get together and partake in the Western Mass Tournament. The last championship for Comp was in 1982 when Mr. Taupier was coach. Mr. Kennedy feels that this year's team looks promising and has great potential.

Words of Wisdom

On winged feet the four years pass
And now we honor our Senior Class
Beyond these walls, this town, this state
A whole new world now lies in wait.
You've much to learn, we're often told
Wisdom to gain before you're old
But tonight - before you turn and go
Your separate ways, as well we know,
Enjoy this place, these hours, this school!
In memory they'll return to you.

POEM
TO THE SENIORS

Another year goes passing by Another graduation is here
To some this brings a joyous smile
To others, brings a tear
For four years you have tread a path
From dawn to setting sun
But now the path gets steeper
And the climb is just begun
We're very glad to know you
We'll miss you when you've gone
And to the Class of '88
Best wishes from the Class of '89

Congratulations to all the members of the class of 1988! Our ultimate goal was to educate each of you to grow intellectually, morally, and socially. Your generation will be faced with one of the greatest challenges of all times and that is - how can we control our environment. Be concerned, be involved in areas which will ensure you an enjoyable, healthy, and comfortable life.

Mitchell S. Kuzdzal

To the Members of the Class of 1988:

This has been an excellent group of students. No other class has demonstrated the spirit, cohesiveness and drive that bonds a group together like the senior class has shown during their years at Comprehensive.

Your achievements cover every area and include outstanding achievements academically, socially, athletically, and in every other way.

May I take this opportunity to congratulate each member of the Class of 1988 on a job well done and to wish you the best of health and happiness for all the days of your life.

God Bless You All!
Sincerely,
Julie M. Leonard
Vice Principal

Graduation brings the first phase of your life to an end. As you move on to the second and future phases I know that you take along many happy memories of your days at Comprehensive High School. I hope that your life will continue to provide happy memories, for I also have many of the class of 1988. I wish you all a joy filled journey into the future.

Alfred E. Pinciak

I would like to congratulate all of the class of 1988 on a job well done. I hope that you all will pursue further education in whatever endeavor you pursue. May I offer my best wishes for health, happiness and good fortune.

Mr. Douglas Gray

One Last Look

The 1987-88 school year has drawn to a close. It is an end, as well as a beginning for some, a continuation for others. One thing is certain, we all have special memories of this past year. Who can ever forget the pageantry of the Opening Ceremonies of the 1988 Winter Olympics? Super Bowl XXII was a surprise to many, the Washington Redskins defeated the Denver Broncos by a score of 42-10. On a more serious note, President Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev took steps to reduce nuclear armaments during their meeting in Washington in the fall of 1987.

Here at Comp the teachers signed a new contract in November after long hours of negotiations and threats of a strike. Contract talks had intensified when many teachers called in sick on October 26, leaving Comp understaffed for the day. In February, Save a Sweetheart Day was introduced here at Comp. Its purpose- to encourage those who smoked to stop for one day, and for those who did not smoke not to start.

This past year has held many memories which I will never forget. When I think of unity I will always remember the fifty Seniors who undertook the task of raising the money needed to produce a successful yearbook. Their enthusiasm and support were invaluable assets to me. I also extend a very special thank you to veryone, faculty and students alike, for their continued support throughout the past year. It is because of you that Memini 1988 is a success.

Thank you

Mr. Raymond Boulais for his continued advice, support, and supervision throughout the year as advisor. His support was greatly appreciated and his dedication an inspiration.
Mr. Don Lendry for his support and enthusiasm throughout the year. His encouraging words and advice were always greatly appreciated.
The Greniers for capturing those special moments on film and, at times, going well above and beyond the call of duty to do so.
Mr. Mitchell Kuzdal for his continuous reassuring words, pats on the back, and friendly smiles to brighten every morning.
Mrs. Julie Leonard for her constant reassurance and support. She always reminded me to take each day one at a time, and to ask for help when I needed it.
Mr. Alfred Pinciak for his genuine concern and support and for providing a shoulder to lean on when I needed one most.
Mr. Paul LeBeau and Mr. Alfred Pinciak, the Senior Class Advisors, for rallying to my side and lending their hands when I most needed help. Their support and encouragement helped me get through the year.
The Class Officers for always being there when I needed them and for their assistance throughout the year.
Kim Roy and Renee Champagne for their fantastic Senior Section, constant flow of new, and sometimes crazy, ideas and their constant support throughout the year.
Ron Jendrysik and Judy Griffin for a terrific Underclassmen Section and for providing me with a new meaning for the word "laughter".
Aimee Dezalia and Kelly Dolan for doing such a great job with the Faculty Section and for their support.
Michelle Hartmann for her outstanding Student Life/Mini-Mag Section. Her hard work and creative ideas were a big success.
Beth Boutin and Robyn McCarthy for all the hard work they put into the entire Academics Section.
Kristen Teehan and Sue Bigos for working down to the last minute to produce a Sports Section worth remembering.
Tracie Loftus and Renee Asselin for all their efforts to give the Organizations Section a new look. Nice job!
Wendy Tolpa for doing a great job with the Advertising Section enabling us to produce a successful yearbook.
Darleen Saczawa and Angelique Sachen for quickly organizing a photography staff to supply the pictures necessary to complete each section.
Kim Roy for undertaking the job of Subscriptions Editor and for her efforts in selling numerous yearbooks.
The Staffs for all their help "behind the scenes". I know who you are and I thank each one of you for helping to make this yearbook a success.
Michelle Hartmann and Kim Roy for working with me to design this "fantastic" cover. Their support, encouraging words, and strength helped me survive this year.

Thank you,
Susan
